

AUSTIN/TRAVIS COUNTY HOMELESS MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM (HMIS) PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

This agency collects information about people who ask about our homeless services and puts the information you give us into a computer program called Bowman Systems ServicePoint (or “Austin/Travis County HMIS”). Austin/Travis County HMIS data are all stored in one computer system maintained by the Ending Community Homelessness Coalition (or “ECHO”). This Privacy Policy Statement describes the practices connected with the Austin/Travis County HMIS computer program. A link to this Privacy Policy can be found on the HMIS section of the ECHO website. A copy of this Privacy Policy Statement, the Privacy Notice and the client ROI are available to clients upon request.

Scope

This Privacy Policy only applies to the information entered into the Austin/Travis County HMIS computer program and does not apply to any other website or computer program. We only collect information that we think is appropriate. The collection and use of all personal information is guided by strict standards of confidentiality as outlined in this Privacy Policy Statement.

This document is not a legal contract. We are required to provide and follow the practices described in this Privacy Policy. This Privacy Policy takes effect immediately and will remain in effect until we replace it. The Privacy Policy can be amended. Any changes may affect the uses of information collected before the policy change.

Purpose of Data Collection

When agencies that use the Austin/Travis County HMIS computer program meet with you, they may ask you for information about you and your family. We may be required to collect some personal information by law or by organizations that give us money to operate this program. Additional personal information that we collect is important to run our programs, to improve the services for homeless persons, and to better understand the needs of homeless persons.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REFUSE TO ANSWER ANY QUESTION AT ANY TIME AND WILL NOT BE DENIED HELP, UNLESS WE NEED THAT INFORMATION TO KNOW IF YOU ARE ELIGIBLE FOR A SERVICE.

your data outside of HMIS, then you and your family's current and historical information in the Austin/Travis County HMIS system may be shared directly outside of the computer system or with outside agencies for research, reporting, and coordinating services.

Uses and Disclosures of your Personal Information

Once you acknowledge that you understand the Austin/Travis County HMIS data sharing rules, your current and historical data may be used or shared to:

- provide and coordinate services to you and your family;
- carry out functions related to payment or reimbursement of services;
- carry out administrative functions, such as legal, audit, and management functions;
- provide different summary reports about homelessness as required by law or by the organizations that provide money for these programs.
- create deidentified personal information for additional analysis;
- meet the requirements of the law;
- prevent a serious threat to health or safety;
- report abuse, neglect or domestic violence to a government authority authorized by law to receive these types of reports when required by law, or when the individual agrees to the disclosure, or when the disclosure is allowable by regulations and we feel it is necessary to prevent serious harm to the individual or other potential victims;
- comply with law enforcement requests such as in response to a lawful court order, court-ordered warrant, subpoena or summons issued by a judicial officer, or a grand jury subpoena; a limited and specific inquiry approved by a supervisory official of the law that is necessary for a law enforcement investigation.
- learn about how well we are serving our clients and to find ways to improve those services;
- understand the scope of need for our services in Austin/Travis County and to use that information when making decisions about ways to address and end homelessness.

If you provide verbal or written permission on the client ROI for the additional sharing of your data outside of HMIS, then you and your family's current and historical information may be shared directly outside of the computer system or with outside agencies for the following reasons:

- To help you get services quickly and easily;
- To help you get better services from our agencies and coordinate your services;
- For research and reporting conducted by an individual or institution that has a formal
